

Death to the Other, he ain't my brother

Death to the infidel, let him rot in hell,

Death to the Ruskies, Hispanics and Yankees

Death to the foreigner with their foul reeking smell.

Death to the Mongols, the Han and the Hun

Death to the Arabs and Death to the Jews,

Death to the Christians and Death to the Hindus

Death to them all and their foul smelling crew.

Death to the Whites and the Blacks and the Yellows

Death to the Brown skins and Red skins too,

Death to the Full Bloods, the Half Castes and Quarter Castes

Death to them all unless they are True.

Death to the Scots and the Welsh and the Irish

Death to the English, nothing less will do,

Death to the Serbs, the Croats and Bosnians,

Death to the lot of them – we'll make the world new.

Death to the Sunni, the Shia, the Wahhabi

Death to the Persians and the Hebrews as well,

Death to the Saudis and the Qataris

Bring out the cannon and blow them to hell.

Death to the bloke who lives round the corner

Death to the family that lives down the street,

Death to that lot that lives over the border

Burn down their houses, let them roast in the heat.

Death to the atheists, agnostics and believers

Death to the wise men and stupid ones too,

Death to the teachers, the doctors and nurses

Death to the learned who haven't a clue.

Death to the hetros, transgenders and homos

Death to the straights and death to the gays

Death to anyone who isn't quite normal

We're going to abolish your deviant ways.

Death to majorities and death to minorities

Death to the abled and disabled too.

Death to the workers and death to the shirkers

Annihilate anyone who come into view.

Homo Neanderthals and Homo erectus

Homo Sapiens – they'll all have to go.

Death to the Martians and all other aliens

Death to the Other, there's no better show.

Death to the singers and poets and artists

Death to the bloggers and polemicists too.

Wipe out the scum and the dregs and the rubbish

And keep the world safe for me and for you.
